Personal Description

About Traveling,
I always dream to be a world traveler. 2014 Europe Exchange Program is my first step.
Every country, each culture and all the people I met on my trip are new and interesting for me!!!
That is, I really like to challenge myself in this way and get new experience as well. Also, the most beautiful part of traveling for me is the people you meet! Because we can always share experience and inspire each other!!! That's the reason why I like to have couch surfing so much and follow the concept of it to make new friends. :D

About Profession,
I've taken photo for over 5 years. And I contributed most of my university life on it that I really have a huge passion for photos. Moreover I've taught photographing in German. So if you're interested in art, design or photos, I'm always looking forward to meet you!!!

How I Participate in CS

As my first experience of couch-surfing was surfing a couch to a Japanese. In that time I didn't even know this website yet , I just simply wanted to make friend with unknown traveler I met on my way back home. Though it sounds a little bit crazy , still, as a traveler myself, there's so much fun to make friends with other travelers!!!
And since then, I've began to make couch surfing for most of my trip.

Couch Information

Couch Available: Maybe
Preferred Gender: Any
No smoking allowed
Has children: No
Can host children: Yes
Has pets: No
Can host pets: No
Max Surfers Per Night: 2

Shared Sleeping Surface: No
Shared Room: Depends
You will be hosted in the living room, where you will sleep on the couch. You will have privacy unless I need something from the kitchen or going to the WC and I pass by.
Please, bring your own sleeping bag if possible.

I live 5 minutes by foot to the center and old town. Nearby are many shopping possibility and the river Salzach is 10 minutes away. One can go there for cycling, running, jogging, sunbathing and relaxing.
I prefer hosting two to four days-guests and if you are requesting a one-night stay your request will be probably rejected.
We also prefer to host couchsurfers who joined CS before 2011. Yes, we are also interested in people who joined later, but they should have a really interesting profile and should convince us why we should host them.
I live happily together with my girlfriend in a small two rooms flat You will sleep in the living room and we will need to pass it when going to the toilet or to the kitchen. So the privacy is a little bit limited.
We don't have pets, don't smoke and don't drink alcohol. We go to bed rather early - around 10:30 pm, but of course we also do exceptions and during weekend we stay usually longer.
Weekdays we are at work, but if you come for the weekend and you are into hiking we will be happy to take you with us and go to the mountains for climbing, via ferrata or hiking.
We enjoy cooking and baking with our guests and we think this is a good way to discover the different culture and to learn more about us. First evening we will probably prepare some food for you and the second it is your turn :-)
We prefer spending time with our surfers, playing board games and sometimes doing crazy stuff like free hugs, pillow fight, origami or jumping photos. So, if you looking only for a place to stay we are not the write persons to host you.
Weekdays we leave around 8 am and come back at around 4-5 pm. We are unable to leave you a key (landlord problem), so you are requested to leave with us. We know it will bother many potential couchsurfers, but we need to respect the rules of our landlord (even more after I was already asked to leave a flat because of too much of hosting)
How many days is too many - this is something we can discuss.
And finally: If you write me a request and due to any reason you cancel your visit - let me know in advance. So other Couchsurfers could visit us.

How I Participate in CS

I try to surf wherever I travel and to host people whenever I can. I found in CS really many good friends.
